

Floyd Dancey, better known as Bud, age 90 years, passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 4, 2017 at his home in Sunset Haven, Carnduff, after a short battle with cancer.

Bud was born on December 4, 1926 at Gainsborough and was raised on the family farm at Storthoaks. He attended Ingoldsby School, high school in Carievale, and went on to Musker Engineering Institute in Winnipeg.

He worked as a contract battery operator for various companies until retirement. Bud and Leone built a home in Carnduff and moved into town in 1991. Bud loved music and played guitar, mandolin, keyboard, bass, fiddle and dobro. He was talented in many ways, musically, technologically and mechanically.

He and Leone traveled extensively in Canada and the U.S. and spent many winters in Florida. They made many lifelong friends on their travels, as well as through playing music

He was predeceased by his parents, Hamilton & Marguerite (Kidd) Dancey; in-laws, Maurice & Evelyn (Bayliss) Berry; four brothers-in-law, Henry Hansen, Chub Nichols, Les Riley, and Bill Berry; sister, Edith Hansen; three sisters-in-law, Muriel Nichols, Helen Riley and Barbara Berry.

Bud is survived by his loving wife, Leone; four children: Sharon (Bill) Hubbard (and family, son Michael, daughter Teanna, son Lee, daughter Erin (Trent) their children: Hannah, Emma & Logan); Cheryl (Dick) Milton (and family, son Rory (Lindsay) their children Ashtyn & Cooper); Barb (Terry) Hendrickson (and family, son Jay, daughter Kristen (Jon), daughter Rhagen); Rick (Marguerite) Dancey (and family, daughters, Stephanie (David), Stacey (Josh) and Samantha); brother-in-law, Leroy (Jennifer) Berry.

A Funeral Service was held at the St. Andrew's United Church on Friday, May 12, 2017 at 2:00 pm. Reverend Susan Reed officiated. Interment took place at the Carnduff Cemetery.
